CARLISLE'S COMMITTEES.

THE DIFFICULTIES OF THE SPEAKER.

His Trouble With the Ways and Means Committee--A Serious Problem That is Giving the Kentuckian Some Trouble.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Dec. 14.--It is whispered here that Carlisle and Morrison are having a somewhat serious time over their Ways and Means Committee. While Carlisle had considerable support from the North, there was little of it that was of the character that would be of use to put into a committee of this nature. He wants for it, of course, men who are interested in accord with his views of tariff reform, and who are of sufficient ability and experience to cope with the old hands on the other side, such as Kelly, Kasson and others, who will have to be given the majority places on the committee.

Said an old politician who is inside the ring and watches the movements of the animals pretty closely: "You see there are plenty of men who would do well for the work, but they all come from the same section. Of course, Morrison is to be Chairman. Carlisle told him that some time ago, and told him he wanted him to select his own associates, the only restriction being that he should find men well in accord with the tariff reform idea. Well, he went to work, his first move being to call upon Ran. Tucker, of Virginia, and offer him a place on the Committee.

"To his surprise Tucker declined it, saying he preferred another position, if he took any. Then, when he came to look to the North for his material, he found great difficulty in getting it. Of course there were plenty of men on the Democratic side from the Northern States, but it is difficult to find among them a half dozen fitted by taste and training for this very arduous duty, and if they are found it is not every one of them who will undertake the task. Of course Morrison can not take anybody from Illinois, for one man from that State is sufficient, and while he may find one in Indiana and one in New York that will about exhaust the list, unless he looks East from Ohio, and he is a dangerous man for so important a position, for he is much beyond Carlisle's views on the tariff as some of the others are this side of them."

A STARTLING TRAGEDY.

The Windsor Hotel the Scene of a Mysterious Drama.

New York, Dec. 14.--Miss Rose E. Keiser, aged thirty years, of 162 West Forty-fourth street, committed suicide Thursday afternoon at the Windsor Hotel by shooting herself through the head. Miss Keiser was on a visit to Mr. and Mrs. Dunn, who had a suite of rooms at the hotel, and without any apparent reason, she suddenly drew a pistol and shot herself in the head. Miss Keiser was a native of Utica, and had been employed for several months in this city by two large firms as stenographer. Officer Schofield, of the Windsor Hotel, said: "Miss Keiser drove up to the ladies' entrance of the hotel about a week in the afternoon and walked up stairs to the suite of apartments on the second floor occupied by Mr. and Mrs. George Dunne. About an hour later I was informed that there was trouble in Dunne's apartments. I went up and heard loud talk in Dunne's room. After waiting a few minutes, I heard the report of a pistol, followed by a piercing scream. I then forced open the door and found Miss Keiser lying on the floor with blood streaming from a wound in the head. Mr. and Mrs. Dunne were in the room, apparently horrified. I raised the body up and laid her on a sofa. She opened her eyes and explained, 'Oh, my God, I've done it. I've killed myself.' Mr. and Mrs. Dunne then left the room. The coroner was notified, and ordered the body of the unfortunate lady to be removed to the undertaker in the Beverly, and postponed the inquest."

The attaches connected with the hotel refused to give any more information about the affair. Mr. Dunne refused to see reporters, but it was learned that ten days ago he was married to a young lady connected with one of the best families in this country. At Miss Keiser's boarding house it was stated she was a beautiful and accomplished lady and loved by all who knew her. She kept regular hours and received no visitors. After the Colonel had taken Mr. and Mrs. Dunne's statement he examined the dead girl's body and found the following letter addressed to Mrs. Keiser, Utica, N. Y.

"Mother, forgive me and pray to God to pardon your broken-hearted daughter. How I have suffered you can guess from this act. Curse the love that makes your children forget you. I tried to conquer it, but no power of will could conquer it. Pray for me--you do not know what this cost me. Think kindly of me. I have been so wronged, more than I can acknowledge, and God alone knows how I have been deceived. Again farewell. My mother, have I deserved this? Rose."

The police of the Central Office were notified of the tragedy late at night and are making a thorough investigation of all the facts connected with the case.

DYING A RAVING MANIAC.

Mrs. Christianity Dies in New York Under Distressing Circumstances.

BROOKLYN, N. Y., Dec. 14.--The divorced wife of Senator Christianity came to a tragic end in this city Thursday evening. Eight years ago she came on a visit to No. 25 Shattuck street on the invitation of a lady residing there. Her hostess house being full, however, a room was provided for her in the adjoining residence of Mrs. Dr. Dupre. Mrs. Christianity desired to conceal her identity, so she was known at both houses as Miss Lizzie Lugenebel, which was her maiden name. She spent most of her time with her friends, only going to the lady doctor's house to sleep. Dr. Dupre soon came to the conclusion that his lodger was a victim of the choral habit, but, as she made no trouble, no notice was taken of the fact. About two weeks ago Mrs. Christianity began to complain of her eyes, and an oculist who was called, declared that she was insane. He also declared that his patient was the divorced wife of the ex-senator, and revealed her identity to Dr. Dupre. This made Mrs. Christianity very much excited, and she begged for protection, saying that she was a persecuted woman.

Caucus of Democratic Congressmen--A Kentucky Whisky Delegation to Wait on the Secretary of the Treasury.

A meeting of Kentucky Congressmen was held Friday, at which ex-Internal Revenue Commissioner Rann was present. A committee was appointed to wait upon Secretary Folger to-day, and ask that he suspend the collection of the tax on all whisky now in bond upon which tax will become due on December thirty-first. They will represent that a bill will be passed by Congress extending the period two years on which now in bond, and that the collection of further tax on whisky now in bond should be suspended.

EXCITING FIRE.

Nine Firemen Seriously Injured at Lowell, Mass.

LOWELL, Mass., Dec. 14.--About three o'clock this morning a fire broke out in the basement of 8 W. Harris' loom-harness works, Little Canada, this city. The building was a brick of three stories, besides the basement, and mostly occupied by Mr. Harris manufacturing loom harness. It has been erected a little more than two years, in the place of a wooden structure destroyed by fire. At 3:30 the fire was well under control, and the damage would have been comparatively small, when suddenly a loud detonation sounded. The roof was raised about three feet, and the whole west end of the building fell, wounding nine firemen but not killing any. The most seriously hurt, were Leroy S. Kimball, on the back and internally, taken to hospital, may survive; John Quinlan, leg broken; Frank Williams, hip crushed. At four o'clock a second explosion sounded, and the fire was turned on the second floor. They renewed the fire to such an extent as practically to destroy the building, though three walls are standing. About half can be utilized rebuilding. Mr. Harris is out of town and the amount of his insurance can not be learned. Loss $50,000, about half protected, probably.

EMMA BOND ON THE STAND.

Pointing Out One of Her Assaults and Convulsions.

ILLINOIS, Ill., Dec. 14.--Emma Bond was called to the stand when court opened Thursday morning. She told the story of the outrage substantially as it has been printed time and again. There was a sensation in court when, pointing to John C. Montgomery, one of the defendants, she said: "There is the man who pulled me up to the left. One man was below pushing me up, and Montgomery was holding my hands." A few moments later, when telling how she begged her assailants to kill her rather than perpetrate an outrage, she broke into a flood of tears. Cross-examination failed to shake her testimony. During the redirect examination she was seized with convulsions and was carried unconscious into the Judge's room. An hour later she was still in the same condition, and a recess was taken.

SPOTS SPOTTED.

From the Son-in-Law Business to Furo and Robbery.

CHICAGO, Dec. 14.--Criminal conspiracy was the charge in which George W. Spotts, Thursday, had nothing to say. He is the son-in-law of a wealthy Indianapolis merchant, and had to leave that city about September 1st for swindling his father-in-law out of some money. He came with his wife to Chicago, lost all his money, and the Board of Trade and in bank, and, to retrieve his fortune, planned the robbery of $1,000 belonging to the Republic Mills, on Kinzie street, where his brother is a member of the firm. A negro, named Johns, who was to commit the crime, was arrested and confessed. Spotts, being himself connected, was allowed to go free on condition that he would leave for Indianapolis immediately.

A Scheme to Dispose of a Bad Business.

CINCINNATI, Dec. 14.--Father Francis Goetz, of the Holy Trinity Church, Dayton, has drawn up a plan by which he proposes to liquidate the Archbishop's debt, and will present it as a motion before the meeting of Bishops of this Diocese. It is in substance as follows: That collections be made in all the churches in this Diocese, beginning with Cincinnati, which shall be completed before the collections continue elsewhere. He has figured that to adjust this debt will require a contribution on the part of each Catholic in this Diocese of $3.00. If the collections are fully made in this city, then they shall follow in the churches in this Archdiocese. Another plan he will suggest will be to let the debt fall upon the Catholic Churches in the country. He estimates that by this plan the debt can be adjusted by each member paying a fraction over fifty-eight cents.

Heavy Verdict Against an Insurance Company.

NORWICH, N. Y., Dec. 14.--The jury in the case of the heirs of Colonel Walton Dwight against the Germania Life Insurance Company have returned a verdict for the plaintiffs on all the specific questions submitted, and a general verdict for the plaintiffs allowing them $18,743.27, with five per cent added for costs. The jury was discharged and Mr. Leverage, of counsel for the Company, moved for a new trial on the minutes of the Court. The motion was denied. He then moved for a stay of proceedings for ninety days, and this motion was granted. The Court was then adjourned for the term.

The American Hog's French Passport.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 14.--Secretary of State Fish has received from Minister Morton, at Paris, a copy of the decree repealing that of February 18th, 1881, by which the importation of American pork was prohibited in France, together with a copy of the circular of the Minister of Commerce addressed to the Prefects informing them of the decision taken, and simply advising them to see that the pork offered to the public is fully cured, and recommending to those making use of such meats that they should be fully cooked, as it is scientifically and experimentally established that thorough cooking and salting destroys trichinosis where it exists.

PARIS, Dec. 14.--Charles Bradlaugh, the eminent English freethinker, was given a banquet by his friends and admirers, and the guests were many Senators and Deputies. O'DONNELL'S ADVENTURE.

Beaten Out of $800 He Has His Money Returned.

MILWAUKEE, Wis., Dec. 14.--Pech's Sun publishes the following: "A year ago a man named Pat O'Donnell was robbed by three-card monte men on a St. Paul train, near Red Wing, Minn. He claimed to have been coming from Montana, and said the sharpers got $800 from him, but before the trial came on, friends of the monte men, one of whom was Mike McDonald, of Chicago, came to Milwaukee, where O'Donnell had been given employment in a freight office in order to retain him as a witness, paid him what he claimed to have lost, and he skipped out, and the robbers had to be given their freedom. O'Donnell went to Philadelphia, took his wife and went to Ireland. This is the same O'Donnell who was so familiarly known in La Crosse, Red Wing and Milwaukee, and is the man who shot Carey, the informer for which he will hang Monday next. This is the first publication of this fact.

A BAD STORY.

How a Woman Was Driven to Suicide By a Dirty Beast.

MILWAUKEE, Dec. 14.--The corpse of a young woman, beautiful even in death, dressed in a wine-colored silk dress and fur circular, was tossed up by the waves Thursday and removed to the morgue. She was identified as Mrs. Julia Morgan, formerly of St. Louis. Her story is a sad one. When a mere girl, father and mother both dead, she was married to a man named Hoffman, whom she divorced and wedded Morgan, who was employed here on the Sentinel. He failed to support his wife and endeavored to force her to enter a house of prostitution, and because she refused, attempted to beat her into submission, horse-whipping her once upon the streets. She was ill, out of money, and without friends, and she ended her troubles by suicide. The inquest will be held to-day.

DAMAGING RAILROAD STRIKE.

Business in Manitoba About at a Standstill.

CHICAGO, Dec. 14.--A special from Winnipeg, Manitoba, says there is no practical change in the Canadian Pacific Railway strike. Overtures made by the men for a peaceful solution of the difficulty have been refused by the Company, which insists upon a complete submission to their terms. The only train yesterday was one sent south, which will return this morning. Mails are being conveyed by teams and hand-cars, and throughout Manitoba business is greatly retarded. The men expect President Arthur, of the Locomotive Brotherhood, to bring about a speedy settlement. Special police protections are adopted, and policemen are stationed on moving engines to prevent damage by the strikers. The Company expects shortly to be able to run passenger trains.

SACKING A SYNAGOGUE.

Had Harve Played By Brutal Vandals in Chicago.

CHICAGO, Ill., Dec. 14.--Some malicious fiends entered the Synagogue of the Jewish congregation of Anshe-Russia, at the corner of Clinton and Judd street, Thursday night and made sad havoc of everything perishable. The Hollywood scrolls were mutilated and destroyed, forty gowns were torn to shreds, and were also the curtains. Eight out of twenty of a new set of Talmit books were out and torn, and the perpetrators even went into the gallery and broke the clock.

THIRTEEN SKELETONS.

Identified as Having Once Been Soldiers of the Sixth Cavalry.

DURHAM, Ia., Dec. 14.--Major Cram, of this city, claims to have identified the twenty-three skeletons recently found in Dickey County, Dakota, as being the remains of a scouting party sent out from camp of the Sixth Iowa Cavalry, in 1863, and who have never since been heard from. The cavalry buttons and spurs found with the human remains, and the bones of horses strengthen this conjecture of the Major. They were doubtless massacred by the Indians.

A DEATH WATCH.

O'Donnell's Demise to be Accompanied With Demonstrations.

CHICAGO, Dec. 14.--The Irish "Prisoner and Martyr" Aid Society has resolved to hold a death watch on the night preceding the execution of O'Donnell. The members of the Society have also decided to hold services in the churches of their respective parishes. It was proposed by the ladies to hold an indignation meeting close on the heels of the execution. Several of the largest halls in the city are tendered gratuitously.

Expelled From the Base Ball League.

CHICAGO, Dec. 14.--"Larry" Corcoran, for four years pitcher of the Chicago League Club, has taken a change of base which will result in his being expelled from the National League. On December 4 Corcoran telegraphed President Spaulding to send a contract and $400 advance. The contract was forwarded. Sunday Corcoran again telegraphed: "Don't send contract. Have signed with National Association. Under existing League rules, this violation of a League contract must result in Corcoran's expulsion."

BROWN HANGED.

Execution of a Colored Murderer in North Carolina.

HALIFAX, N. C., Dec. 14.—Enoch Brown, colored, was hanged here Friday morning. The murder for which Brown swung was particularly brutal, malicious and cold-blooded. It was committed August 17 near Tillery Station, on the line of a branch railroad. Brown, who had been living in that neighborhood only about a month, had that day a quarrel with his wife. This began early in the morning and became intensified until finally all the brute in the negro developed itself. At noon Brown went home from his work in the field to dinner. His wife was standing at a table making bread. He stepped in the door, picked up an axe, and as she turned, half facing him, struck her a blow on the neck, nearly severing her head from her body. He then ate his dinner and returned to work, leaving home at night and burying her body in a shallow grave near his cabin door, where it was found by neighbors three weeks later.

The murderer was captured, tried and convicted last month. He confessed the deed, but said he only intended to scare his wife and not to kill her. The execution took place at the jail at 7:30 in the morning in a heavy rain storm. The execution was private and was seen by only forty persons. The prisoner made a confession and died by strangulation. A large crowd gathered outside the jail yard, mainly negroes, including hundreds of women. The Sheriff being absent in Texas, Deputy John Lee, the escaped murderer, Deputy Sheriff J. D. Derr was in charge of the arrangements.

SALVATION RIOTS.

Bloody Battle Between the Populace and the Cranks in Philadelphia.

PHILADELPHIA, Dec. 14.—A desperate battle took place late at night between about 300 roughs, of Kensington, and the Salvation Army at the barracks on Fifth and Berks streets. The fight was prolonged, bitter, and a second attack resulted in the partial demolition of the barracks of the army and the complete route of the religious enthusiasts, with many injured and wounded. Police Officer Fields was hurt. It was now a matter of life and death, and the police fired upon the mob. The greatest confusion followed. The roughs were undaunted, however, and the attack was renewed, when the police for the second time opened fire. The second volley had the desired effect. Few arrests were made, but quite a number were injured.

Death of General Edward Hamilton.

PORTLAND, Oregon, Dec. 14.—General Edward Hamilton, aged eighty-two, died in this city after a brief illness. He served with distinction in the Mexican war. For a number of years he was prominently identified with Ohio politics, conducting at one time a lively Whig paper. In 1890 he was appointed by President Taylor Territorial Secretary of Oregon, and served while General Joseph Lane acted as Provisional Governor of the Territory.

Found $5,500.

NEW HAVEN, Conn., Dec. 14.—W. S. Lacey, yardmaster at the depot here, found $5,500 in bonds belonging to C. C. Davis, the Wallace, N. H., druggist, which one of the burglars who escaped a few nights ago secreted. The warrant upon which Crandall, the alleged burglar, was captured the other night, was to-day nollied and a new one issued, and he was rearrested.

KENDALL'S SPAVIN CURE

The Most Successful Remedy ever discovered as it is certain in its effects and does not blister. Read proof below.

Kendall's Spavin Cure.

SANTA ROSA, California, Feb. 9, 1883.

B. J. KENDALL & Co., Gents:—I feel it a duty to others suffering with the piles and falling of the rectum to write to you, I have had the piles and prolapsus of the rectum for five years, for the past three years I have suffered the most agonizing pain. I tried everything without relief, but after ten days' use of Kendall's Spavin Cure, I have not seen or heard of the piles since. One who has not suffered as I have cannot comprehend the great joy that I felt at being cured of a disease almost worse than death. I had a valuable young horse that had a large bush gail on his breast bone. I tried all kinds of liniments and had it cut open without any benefit. Saw your advertisement and bought a bottle of Kendall's Spavin Cure and ordered my teamster to use as directed. In less than one week the lump had disappeared. Thinking that a liniment that would do what Kendall's Spavin Cure has done for my horse might benefit more. I tried it as a last resort. With gratitude and best wishes for your success, I am, faithfully, yours,

J. H. GLENN.

Kendall's Spavin Cure.

The Kendall's Spavin Cure is in excellent demand with us, and not only for animals, but for human ailments also. Mr. Jos. Norris, one of the leading farmers in our county, sprained an ankle badly, and knowing the value of the remedy for horses, tried it on himself, and it did far better than he had expected. Cured the sprain in very short order. Yours respectfully,

THE MINISTER WHO FAILS to interest his congregation and build up his church is generally accused of being a poor preacher, or of not studying hard enough. That is not always where the trouble comes from. Dyspepsia and liver disorders are responsible for many a dull sermon and many a vacant pulpit. When the Dominie's digestive apparatus is working wrong, and his nerves are giving him pain, and his brain refuses to do its duty, it is almost impossible to make or to preach a good sermon. Give your suffering minister a bottle of Brown's Iron Bitters. You will see its effect on next Sunday's preaching. The Rev. Mr. Zehring, of Codorus, Pa., was paralyzed, and could not walk except with crutches, until Brown's Iron Bitters made a new man of him. The Rev. Mr. White, of Rock Hill, S. C., says: "It restored me to strength and vigor." Brown's Iron Bitters is not only for the minister, but for all people.
